

An Interview with Sami FitzGerald... World's Youngest Entrepreneur?

David Gussin
May 2008

Q: At what age did you decide to write a book? Why?

A: I was six years old when I wrote my book. I wanted a gratitude workbook like the ones my mom and dad had and we looked in the stores but couldn't find one. So I told my mom that that was okay, we would just make one and we did.

Q: Why Fish Sticks, Books & Blue Jeans for a title?

A: My mom picked the title. She said that everyone knows about fish sticks, books and blue jeans and that all kids around the world have these things.

Q: How have your classmates reacted to book?

A: I am homeschooled, but my friends all think it is cool that I wrote a book. Sometimes they laugh when I get recognized, but that's okay because I like to make people laugh.

Q: What's your favorite subject in school? Favorite food? Favorite activity?

A: Math. Pizza and tangerines. Ice skating.

Q: How did you feel when you first saw your printed business cards?

A: I thought it was funny but it made it easy to give them out to everyone I met.

Q: Do you plan on writing another book? What would the topic be?

A: I am working on a book project with Debbi Chambers. It is called "Growing In Gratitude" and it helps kids see something grow while they work on their dream books.

Q: What advice do you have for other entrepreneurs?

A: Find what you love to do and have fun doing it. For business stuff, just do it. Don't stop to think about things because that can make you feel scared. If you know in your heart you can do something, then just do it and don't let anyone or anything stop you.

Q: Sami, one more question, Do you like fish sticks? With or without tartar sauce? :)

A: I do like fish sticks w/ketchup, lol!

